

TO KILL THE CZAR.

A Russian Suicide Leaves a Confession of Conspiracy

By Which He Was Chosen to Slay Alexander III.

Rather Than Commit the Deed He Takes His Own Life—Several of His Accomplices Arrested—The Czar and the Warning of Mme. Tschebrikova—The Pope and Francis Joseph—Foreign.

LONDON, April 2.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg to The Daily Telegraph says that a man who committed suicide yesterday left a letter in which he confessed that he had been engaged in a conspiracy against the life of the czar.

The letter said that the writer and his fellow-conspirators had drawn ballots to decide which should take the czar's life and the lot had fallen to the writer, who, rather than commit the deed, had determined to take his own life. The letter also gave the names of the writer's accomplices, several of whom have been arrested.

Mme. Tschebrikova's Warning.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 2.—It is reported that Mme. Tschebrikova, the Russian lady who recently wrote a letter to the czar calling attention to the political situation of the country, has been secretly conducted to Siberia.

Another report received here states that Mme. Tschebrikova was released by order of the czar, and that the czar wrote upon the margin of the letter sent him by Mme. Tschebrikova: "This is bitterly written. Nevertheless the author can be left alone."

A Monument to Bismarck.

BERLIN, April 2.—A committee comprising influential members of all shades of political opinion, of which Herr Von Levetzow, president of the reichstag, is president, has issued an invitation to the public to subscribe to a fund for the erection of a National monument in Berlin to Prince Bismarck. The committee will invite Emperor William to become patron of the undertaking.

Austria and the Vatican.

ROME, April 2.—The Tribune's Vienna correspondent says that negotiations have been in progress for several months between the Emperor of Austria and the Vatican which may lead to the cession of the troublesome province of Trent to the holy father as a residence. The offer has been actually made, and only an answer from the Vatican is awaited.

English Revenue Returns.

LONDON, April 2.—The revenue returns for the fiscal year 1889-90, show an increase in receipts of £4,617,024, of which £1,100,000 is due to augmented taxation, allowing for sums paid for local taxation in 1889-90, the net revenue has increased £331,500.

Foreign Notes.

Gen. Ambert is dead. He was in the 86th year of his age.

Mr. Henry M. Stanley will be the guest of the Spanish consul at Nice for a week.

The Figaro states that Queen Victoria will have a conference with the Emperor William at Darmstadt.

It is reported that Saint Saens is living quietly at Vienna.

The Dutch police officials believe that a suicide found on the banks of the Moese is none other than that of Eyraud the Parisian strangler.

The disorders among the Russian students at the military academy and the institute of mines and forestry continue, and further arrests have been made.

Several high officials in the mining districts of Chita and Verkhniordinsk, including two owners of gold mines, have, according to Siberian newspapers, been imprisoned for peculation and bribery.

Letters of a most friendly nature have been exchanged between the czar and Prince Bismarck. In his communication the prince expressed the belief that recent events would in no wise disturb the relations between the two empires.

The czar and czarina recently paid a visit to the military prison. They conversed with the prisoners and asked them to state the causes which led to their imprisonment. The czar ordered the release of sixty of the prisoners and a reduction of sentences of sixty others.

The London Times says that Prince Bismarck, in relinquishing the office of chancellor while the political sky was clear, showed the same patriotic foresight that has been the distinguishing trait of his career. "As to the future of Germany," the paper adds, "there is not the least reason for lugubrious views."

Bills Signed by the President.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The president has signed the bill suspending the enforcement of the law requiring life saving appliances on steamers; also, the act for the relief of the owners, officers and crew of the British bark Chance, also, the bill granting an increase of pension to Elmer A. Snow.

The Marine Matched.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Directors of the California Athletic club Monday night matched John F. Herget and George La Blanche, the Marine, for a finish battle June 27. The purse will be $3,000, of which $500 will go to the loser.

Indianapolis Firemen's Fund.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 2.—About $5,000 was realized Monday night from the concert in aid of the firemen's fund. The best musical talent of the city, headed by Mrs. Zeda Seguin Wallace volunteered their services. James Whitcomb Riley contributed a reading, and Dickinson and Talbot donated the use of both theaters, paying all the expenses incident thereto. The total relief fund will exceed $45,000.

New York Bricklayers.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The bricklayers have entered into a contract with the firms employing union men, for another year's work under the nine-hour clause. Many of the men desired an eight-hour schedule, but a compromise was effected on an advance of five cents an hour. This makes a daily rate of $4.05.

FEMALE WHITE CAPS.

A Married Man Gets Too Gay to Suit His Wife and Her Friends.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., April 2.—Sunday evening at Alamo, a few miles west of here, William Grimes was assaulted by a crowd of women and given a whipping. He had deserted a young wife and child and was paying so much attention to other young ladies of the neighborhood that public sentiment was aroused almost to the point of White Capping him.

Sunday evening he accompanied a young lady to church, and as he was seeing her home they were waylaid by a party of indignant females. His wife was one of the attacking party, and belabored her recreant husband with a board as hard as she could. Harmon Deets, a neighbor, was with the women to see that they did the case full justice. Monday morning he was fined for assault and battery, although he only seconded the fight. Quite a crowd was attracted by the cries of the victim, but did not offer to interfere with the castigation.
